Dear Franta,

odst.	text	pořadí
A	And what about you? How did you spend your Christmas Eve? Did you celebrate a lot? I hope that you did and that you had a wonderful time. But I didn't. I'll tell you my story.
B	While I'm writing to you, my wife Jane is probably combing her hair in the bathroom because she'll visit me in the afternoon. Little Pepa is probably cross-country skiing in the woods with his friends and our lovely daughter's probably watching TV or feeding her pigeons. I don't know.
C	On the twenty-fourth of December in the morning I went to buy some presents to the nearest town. In Widlákov there are almost no shops. I bought two bars of chocolate for the kids and a new iron and some nice glasses for Jane. I also shopped for food. And I also bought my wife two bottles of very expensive wine. I left the shop with a full bag. The new iron was from iron, so the bag was very heavy. When I got to the bus stop, the bag broke and so did the glasses! There was glass everywhere! I didn't want to leave it on the ground, so I took it and put in the nearest trash can . And I missed my bus home!
D	how are you? I'm sitting on my bed and thinking about you. Outside the sun isn't shining and the birds aren't singing either. It's snowing and it's very cold. Winter came early this year and I believe that we'll have very cold January with lots of snow. Some kids are probably playing in the street in front of the building. I hear them because they are very noisy.	1st
E	The next morning I woke up and didn't know where I was. The first person who I met was a nice lady in a white coat. So was the second lady! I was shocked and confused . I didn't understand anything.
F	So I needed to wait for another bus. But on that day there were only very few buses to Widlákov. I was so sad that I ate the first bar of chocolate and opened one of the bottles of wine for Jane. After an hour and a half of waiting I started to feel very cold, so I went to the nearest pub (quite dirty "greasy spoon") and bought a bowl of soup. I brought it with me to the bus stop. I sat down on a bench and started to eat. But I found a hair in it! I felt very angry. I returned to the pub and asked for my money back.
G	So, this was my story. I missed the Christmas Eve this year! Can you believe it?
H	My dear brother, I must finish my letter now. I need to pack my things before Jane comes. She'll take me home. She'll be here in a few minutes because the alcohol treatment clinic always closes at 6 pm. I hope that the new iron will fix everything ... Please, keep your fingers crossed for me! Thank you,
I	When I came back to the bus stop again, I saw my second bus leaving! It was terrible and I was furious . I opened the second bottle and also finished the second bar of chocolate. After I finished the wine, I felt very tired and fell asleep ...

your brother Pepa
